TEXAN'S VIEWS

J. M. BLANKENSHIP BELIEVES
GLENDALE SHOULD STRIVE FOR FACTORIES

J. M. Blankenship, who came here from Wichita Falls, Texas, several months ago, has demonstrated his faith in Glendale by purchasing a beautiful home and erecting a substantial business house. He is going to invest further in Glendale real estate, he says, for he thinks the city is on a sound financial basis. But he thinks we are short-sighted in not providing factories and other industries to provide employment for more of our own people. He cites his former home town in Texas as an example of what team work will do in building up a city. Not so many years ago Wichita Falls was a sleepy town of 8200 people. A wide-awake Chamber of Commerce was formed and it went after factories, locating several. Then oil was struck but not to any great extent and there was no rush to the new field. But the town grew and landed more factories and the population soon reached 20,000. Then came the great oil strike and in a very few years the city claimed 40,000 inhabitants. Now the Chamber of Commerce is working on a plan for a great dam across the river to form a large lake which will store water for the irrigation of many thousands of acres of arid lands.

Mr. Blankenship thinks we should get away somewhat from the idea of a "city of homes" only and provide something that will employ not only those who need the work, but some of the idle rich who could make themselves useful in financing some of the projects and managing them.

Real Estate Changes

In Glendale with the rapidity in which property changes are taking place, it is almost impossible to keep in touch with closest friends. Tempting offers are made and accepted by owners of Glendale homes, who immediately get permits to build other houses, perhaps after long-cherished plans, or buy elsewhere in Glendale. Even old residents are astounded when they walk along streets not traversed in the last few months, to see the extent of the building that has taken place. Streets then sparsely built up are now almost solid with beautiful homes. Despite all this building of homes there is a distressing lack of renting property to be had.

Riverdale Drive has had an unprecedented number of residences erected just lately. The Pacific Avenue School has been forced to add another kindergarten teacher to its force on account of the number of young children entering this school in the last month.

Boy Scouts Feed on Pie

On Friday evening the members of Troop 2, Glendale Boy Scouts, met at the home of Scoutmaster Benjamin Robison, 407 North Louise street, and from there marched to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase, where they had been invited to enjoy a "Pie Feed." Around a campfire the boys partook of apple and pumpkin pies, accompanied by doughnuts and lemonade, until the inner man was more than satisfied and at the close of this jolly time they were invited into the house where songs and games were enjoyed until after 9:30 when they departed for their several homes declaring Mrs. Chase a royal hostess. Stillman Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chase, is Senior Patrol Leader and helped to make the evening a pleasant one for his comrades.

Mrs. Henry Roeder, 334 North Maryland avenue, has just returned from a month's visit to her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Reed, in Glendora. She left a fine new grand-daughter, Henrietta Reed, aged two weeks.

IOWANS COMING

MR. AND MRS. CRANE OF CLEAR LAKE WILL DRIVE THROUGH

J. K. Hill of 429 North Kenwood street reports that his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Crane of Clear Lake, Iowa, have purchased a Buick sedan and expect to start Thursday of this week on the Overland trip to Glendale. Mr. Crane is engaged in the lumber and real estate business in Clear Lake, but he will no doubt succumb to the attractions of Glendale as so many others have done.

REV. BLACKSTONE

PREACHES STIRRING MORNING
SERMON AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH YESTERDAY

Rev. W. E. Blackstone, who has a world-wide reputation in Presbyterian circles and who has a great many friends in Glendale, where he has preached a number of times, filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian church yesterday. A happy feature of the service was the presentation by Rev. Edmonds to Mr. Blackstone, just before the sermon, of a beautiful bouquet in honor of the reverend gentleman's 80th birthday. Dr. Blackstone is the author of a work well known in religious circles, "Christ Is Coming," and naturally the subject of the sermon was on this theme, and he presented it in a manner that was particularly logical and convincing and made unusually interesting by certain original interpretations of the prophecies.

The text was Isaiah 64:1: "Who is this that cometh from Edom?" The speaker called attention to the context. The prophet had been promising the Israelites that their land should not be any longer called forsaken or desolate, that the watch-

Glendale Grips Them

The gripping power of Glendale's many attractions is well illustrated in the case of Fred L. Thompson. Coming to Glendale from Indianapolis almost 10 years ago he soon acquired Glendale residence properties and for years was a great Glendale booster. Selling his two properties over a year ago he moved to 433 Lake street, Los Angeles, to be nearer his work, but he and the family still regard themselves as Glendaleans for all practical purposes. They all attend church here and Fred is the valued teacher of one of the big Bible school classes for men. And Fred still carries his bank account here, convinced that the service rendered is unsurpassed by Los Angeles institutions.

Food Sale a Success

The food sale conducted at the Christy grocery Saturday afternoon for the Mary Jane Gillette Tent, Daughters of Veterans, was quite a success. It was the first food sale to be held by this patriotic order, and the proceeds from the many delicious home-made cakes, pies, various breads, etc., netted about $15. Mrs. Queen Danner, 1631 Gardena avenue, was in charge, assisted by Mesdames Gertrude Griffin and Eva Pixley, and Miss Audrey Hall.

Death of Mr. Schwab

P. J. Schwab of 701 North Maryland avenue died Oct. 9th. Mr. Schwab was born at Mankato, Minn., Oct. 5, 1869. By profession he was a druggist and he was a graduate of Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. He leaves a wife and stepson, Ralph McFarland, who were with him at the time of his death, also two brothers and one sister in Mankato, Minn. The funeral will be held Tuesday at 2:30 at the Jewel City Undertaking Company parlors.

Deceased had lived in Glendale nine years and was a constant sufferer much of that time. He was a kind and obliging neighbor and had made many friends in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fryer, 1424 N. Pacific avenue, with Dr. and Mrs. Henry W. Vanderhoof, 247 North Jackson street, visited the live stock show in Los Angeles, Exposition Park, last Friday.

HARRIS LAW

AUTHOR OF ENFORCEMENT MEASURE WILL SPEAK IN GLENDALE TUESDAY

If you are interested in law enforcement you will want to hear Senator Harris, author of the Harris Law (a state law in conformity with the Volstead Act), who is to speak at the Glendale High School auditorium Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Senator Harris is to speak on the referendum to the Harris law which will appear on the ballot at the November election as No. 2, Prohibition Enforcement Act.

Charles F. Van de Water, Republican candidate for Congress, who is a firm supporter of the Harris Law will also speak.

There will be community singing led by O. E. Von Oven, with Mrs. C. L. Peckham at the piano.

CLEVELAND ALMOST CINCHES SERIES TODAY

SUNDAY'S GAME ONE OF THE BEST CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS EVER STAGED; MANY HEROES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

The final score for today's game is as follows:

Cleveland 1.
Brooklyn 0.

The game yesterday was considered the best ever played in a world series, Cleveland winning by a score of 8 to 1. Elmer Smith, Cleveland fielder, made a home run with the bases loaded in the first inning. Bagby, Cleveland's pitcher, made a homer with two men on bases in the fourth inning. Wambgsanff made a triple play unassisted.

SPENCER STANDS FIRM

SAYS THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE IN SUBSTANCE IN HIS DECLARATION AND PRESIDENT'S TRANSCRIPT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 11.—Senator Spencer today declared there is no difference "in substance" between the President's transcript and Spencer's declaration that "Wilson promised military aid to Rumania and Serbia if they are attacked." Spencer today stood by his original statement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The White House today added another chapter to the controversy between President Wilson and Senator Spencer of Missouri by making public a stenographic transcript of the President's remarks at the eighth plenary session of the Peace Conference. According to the transcript, Wilson said, "How can the United States after signing this treaty, if it contains elements which they do not believe will be permanent, report to its people that it has made a settlement of world peace? There underlies these transactions the expectations on the part of Rumania, Czechoslovakia, and Serbia that if the covenants are not observed, the United States will send her armies and navies to see that they are observed."

KIDNAPPED BABY SMOTHERED

AUGUST PASQUALE CONFESSES TO TAKING KOUGHLIN
CHILD FROM HOME; LATER FINDS IT IS DEAD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 11.—Blakely Koughlin, the missing Norristown baby, was accidentally smothered to death and buried near Egg Harbor, New Jersey, according to the confession of August Pasquale, Major Adams of the State Police announced today. Pasquale revealed details of the kidnapping, according to Adams.

Pasquale said he took the child from the Koughlin home under his coat. The baby was dead when he had made his escape, he said.

HARDING TO GO SOUTH

CANDIDATE RESTING PREPARATORY TO SPEAKING TRIP
INTO TENNESSEE, KENTUCKY, INDIANA, MISSOURI

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Marion, O., Oct. 11.—Senator Warren G. Harding returned from his southwestern speaking trip today for a 24 hours' rest before he leaves for Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana and Missouri. His invasion of the south was believed to be the last speaking trip he will make away from Marion before the November election.

PROBE BOOZE RING

SAN FRANCISCO AUTHORITIES HAVE WARRANTS FOR NINE WHO SUPPLIED BOOTLEGGERS WITH WHISKY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Federal officers were today delving into the ramifications of a gigantic booze ring which supplied bootleggers with hundreds of gallons of whiskey withdrawn from bonded warehouses ostensibly for non-beverage purposes. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of nine persons.

JAPS BLAME CHINESE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOKIO, Oct. 11.—The foreign office issued a lengthy statement today charging laxness of the Chinese government was responsible for cooperation between Chinese and Korean bandits operating on the Manchurian border. The foreign office said Chinese troops had joined Korean bandits. Japanese troops have been sent against the bandits, the statement said.

VILNA ANOTHER "FIUME"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Europe had another "Fiume" today with the capture of Vilna, Lithuanian cautoil, by the Polish General Zeligowski, who has been repudiated by the Polish government. The Lithuanian government withdrew to Kovno.

MILFORD CARD CLUB

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED
BY MRS. H. G. HOSFORD FRI-DAY AFTERNOON

The ladies of the Milford Street Card Club were delightfully entertained on Friday by Mrs. Horace G. Hosford, 233 North Central avenue. Five Hundred was played until about 4 o'clock, when the guests were called to the dining room, where the idea of Hallowe'en season was carried out in the decorations.

Each guest was requested to find her place, and the search began. The clever hostess had secured a picture of every member, and mounted the head on advertisements cut from magazines, showing each at her favorite amusement or occupation, such as surf-bathing, sewing, cards, etc. After locating themselves, all were seated, and at each place lay a package securely tied. Just as the guests made ready to open them, the hostess read a toast which cleverly revealed that the gifts were for Mrs. John Robert White, the guest of honor. A large shower bouquet of dahlias was presented, the shower being strings of clothes pins, brushes, pans and other kitchen paraphernalia. As each guest passed her gift to Mrs. White, it was opened, and an accompanying verse read. The prize, a glass of jelly, for the best rhyme, was voted to the hostess, which she, in turn, presented to Mrs. White. Many useful gifts for the kitchen found their way to the party and were gratefully acknowledged.

After a delightful luncheon suitable to the Hallowe'en season the prizes for highest and lowest scores in Five Hundred were presented to Mrs. Eustace L. Young, and Mrs. Reed Heustis.

The guests were Mesdames Henry Brummel, H. B. Fletcher, S. C. Lippelman, Reed Heustis, H. C. McPherson, C. H. Thompson, J. H. Southard, W. N. Rathbun, Ira D. Vinton, John Robert White and Eustace L. Young.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB

COX-ROOSEVELT CLUB FORMED
AND PERMANENT OFFI-CERS CHOSEN

The meeting Saturday evening in the High School auditorium to organize a Cox-Roosevelt Club was largely attended and the audience showed great enthusiasm. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones called the meeting to order and was made temporary chairman, with Dwight W. Stephenson as temporary secretary. On motion of Frank Muhleman a committee of five, to be headed by Mattison B. Jones as chairman, was appointed to formulate plans for a permanent organization and to select permanent officers. The other members of this committee were F. L. Muhleman, Mrs. Geo. Larkey, Charles Grist and C. O. Pulliam. They reported in a few minutes, recommending an immediate organization of a Cox-Roosevelt Club and with the following permanent officers: Col. Tom Thornton, president; Mrs. Alex Mitchell, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, 2d vice-president; Miss Elizabeth Smith, secretary; C. O. Pulliam, treasurer. Thirty other vice-presidents are to be appointed. Col. Thornton, on being escorted to the chair to assume the presidency, made a brief speech of acceptance and then by request Mattison B. Jones addressed the meeting on the League of Nations.

The High School auditorium has been secured for four meetings, one of which will be addressed by Senator Phelan.

Mrs. Setright Entertains

Mrs. W. J. Setright, until recently a resident of Glendale, entertained her piano class at a luncheon and recital last Saturday at her home in Highland Park. Those invited were Mrs. David Slavin, Mrs. Clara Brown and Misses Helen Orr, Margaret Brown, Bernice Brown, Elaine Horning, Martha Lee Martine, Marjorie Priaux, Alice Priaux, Nora Wing, Ethel Johnston, Rita Johnston, Ellen Adenarcer and Dorothy Adenarcer.

Camp Fire Girls

A group of Camp Fire girls with their guardian, Mrs. F. P. Wilkin, 500 North Louise street, spent Saturday at Griffith Park. They climbed to the top of Bee Rock, explored a canyon, and lunched in the open. After a fine outing, they hiked home by the river road. These out-door lassies were Misses Josephine Farnham, Mildred Thompson, Emma Laura Cooper, Catherine Guthrie, Alice Sarrow and Veda Knapp.

HOUSE FAMINE

DESPITE THE UNPRECEDENTED BUILDING, IT IS STILL MOST ACUTE

While the insistent cry all over Southern California is for more residences to house the flood of Easterners coming by train and auto this fall, and the demand seems to be heeded by builders to a remarkable extent, yet the house famine seems not to have been relieved in the slightest. Glendale's nearly half a million dollars' worth of building in September was almost entirely for residence purposes and four-fifths of its more than half a million for August was devoted to the same purpose, yet there are still scores of unfilled demands for houses. Almost the same ratio was noted in Los Angeles, where, out of a little more than seven million dollars' worth of building last month more than $5,000,000 worth of it was for housing purposes, with sufficient accommodations for 1686 new families. Other cities have very similar records and still the house famine all over the Southland is acute. That the peak of the flood of tourists to this section has not yet been reached nor is in sight is evidenced by two recent statements, one that the Automobile Club of Southern California is fairly swamped with inquiries from motorists all over the East as to road conditions out this way and the other that all the trans-continental railway lines are putting on new trains and shortening up running time. The Santa Fe will add two de luxe trains a week and cut the time between Chicago and Los Angeles eight hours.

Rev. Cole to St. Louis

Rev. C. A. Cole left at 9 this morning for St. Louis, Mo., to attend the annual convention of Christian churches which opens next Monday morning. He will preach in his old home city, Wichita, Kansas, next Sunday morning and in the Christian church at Abilene, Kansas, 100 miles further on, where he was pastor during the first seven years of his ministry. On the following Sunday he is to fill the pulpit of the Compton Heights Christian church, where he ministered for the four years preceding his coming to Glendale.

ELKS' CONVENTION

STATE MEETING GREATLY EN-JOYED BY 600 DELEGATES
PRESENT

The special train conveying the Southland Elks home from the state convention held at Sacramento last Thursday, Friday and Saturday reached here at 8:45 this morning, and the Glendale delegation, 48 strong, reached their homes tired but happy.

The Glendale contingent consisted of 37 members of the Patrol and their captain, W. C. Wattle; Exalted Ruler John Fanset, Secretary Chas. Lettis, Loyal Knight James Appfel, Trustee Harry White and seven ladies, Mesdames Walter Jones, Anthony Gage, O. L. Whitaker, Joe Fortunato, Jack Thomas, Harry H. Moore and J. D. Hale.

Capt. Wattle spoke in high terms of the entertainment afforded by the Elks of Sacramento. They were met at the station by the city band dressed in Zouave uniforms, and escorted to the armory, where they were entertained by the Big and Little Brother band of the Elks Lodge there at frequent intervals. They were taken for many auto rides about the elm-shaded streets and in every way made to feel at home.

In the drill contest Glendale took third prize, with Los Angeles first, Pasadena second and Oakland fourth. Capt. Wattle and his men of the Patrol feel that they would have come out first but for some handicaps, one of them the rain, which came down in torrents after they had drilled but nine minutes. They had then to repair to the Armory and finish the drill while cold and wet. Also the judges had no books of rules and hence the Glendale boys missed out on some of the points in which they were particularly strong.

San Jose won the bowling and golf contests, Sacramento the ball game and Petaluma the ritualistic contest for the Benjamin cup, with San Diego a close second.

There were over 600 delegates present.

Mrs. William Tennis of Safford, Arizona, is here visiting her sister, Miss Mabel DeGroat, teacher in the Seventh-day Adventist school.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN

TWO STRONG SERMONS YESTERDAY BY PASTOR ON EVE OF JOURNEY

Rev. C. A. Cole's morning sermon at Central Christian church yesterday on the subject, "The Hour Is Come," was fairly electrifying. The speaker started out rather pessimistically by dwelling on the great unrest following the war and the failure of the churches to unite on a definite program of work to evangelize the world. Then he spoke hopefully of the outlook if each church member will take upon himself the obligation to work wholeheartedly for the cause he holds so dear. The local situation was outlined in the plainest terms, the urgent need of a new house of worship being set forth. He claimed that instead of hesitating over the building of a $30,000 plant for the church's activities in all lines, a $100,000 edifice could be financed with ease if each member would resolve to sacrifice to the limit.

The evening sermon topic was "The Unknown God of Today." Paul's address to the Athenians on the unknown god was the background for the sermon, the speaker quoting the great apostle's opening statement "whom ye ignorantly worship, Him declare I unto you," fitting it to present day times, when people are seeking after unknown gods instead of cleaving to Him "in whom we live and move and have our being." The special music for the morning service was a beautiful solo by Harry Marple and in the evening Mrs. Floyd Mercer and Mrs. Cleo C. Stoler gave a lovely duet.

Garage Ransacked

The garage of Peter Goertz, 324 Pioneer Drive, was ransacked Friday night. It was securely locked, and the thieves entered by means of skeleton keys. The battery of the car had been previously removed for trial, so the machine could not be started, and was left undisturbed; no tools were stolen, though they were found scattered about the floor. The only things of much value missed were a silk dress and some hand-painted pictures that had been packed away in a trunk.

men on the walls should not hold their peace, day or night, till Jerusalem had been made "a praise in the earth," and the Jews a people not forsaken.

Now he that cometh out of Edom is undoubtedly Jesus the Messiah, but this reference to Him has been to many Bible students much of a mystery. Many have made it appear simple by substituting Egypt for Edom; but this is far fetched; the Word of God rests upon a surer foundation than guess-work. It stands as solid as a rock, and the learned explanations that come out of the University of Chicago and other so-called modern schools of thought, do not shake it a particle. The life time of Jesus as far as we know of it, was mostly spent in Palestine, and for a short time probably in Egypt. But Edom is away off to the eastward. It was the land of Esau and close by Moab, near the northerly boundary of India. You remember the promise, "In Abraham shall all men be blessed." The Savior of mankind came from the Jews, and again from the Jews He will come at His second appearance, and the time of it is rapidly approaching. The prophecies found in Revelations are now being fulfilled in actual world conditions. The Jews are going to Jerusalem from all parts of the world. They are going there with different motives, but some are going there who are filled with the spirit of God; who have kept the faith through all their generations. Palestine at present is far from being a peaceful land. Under the authority of the League of Nations, Great Britain has been given a mandate for its government, but conditions there are far from peaceful and in fulfillment of prophecy, they will grow much worse until the time will come when the warning of the prophet as found in Isaiah 26:20, will be obeyed, "Come my people, enter into the chambers and shut thy doors about thee; hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation is overpast." The true followers of the Lord in Jerusalem will take to the mountains and hide themselves for a season. When the devout Jews are driven from Jerusalem, there is a place over there eastward in Edom that they will seek as a sanctuary. It is near the northern boundary of India, a natural hiding place; a place of safety. It is a mountainous place with cliffs full of caves and places where the refugees may live in safety until the danger is past. And they will not be there long; they will come out again and return by another route to Jerusalem, but they will come "Out of Edom;" and again from among these chosen people of God, from among those who have been true throughout their generations to the faith of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, will come again in all His glory, Jesus Christ, the Savior!

Woman's Relief Corps

The Woman's Relief Corps has just completed the furnishing of two attractive reception rooms at the entrance of the hall on South Glendale avenue. Repairs costing $100 have recently been made, and further improvements are under contemplation.

At the regular meeting of the Corps on Friday, which was an unusually profitable gathering, a number of applications for membership were received by the President, Mrs. R. S. Milligan. Mesdames Emily Bee and Mande Starkey were initiated into the organization. Plans were discussed for entertaining the Redondo Beach ladies who will be present at an all-day meeting of the Kensington Club, a branch of the Relief Corps, on Wednesday. A hot dinner, to be served in the banquet hall, was planned.

A "sinister influence" is an intangible thing exercised in the opposition party.

There may be no wet and dry issue, but some folks seem to be hanging around old John Barleycorn's grave with picks and shovels.

Some men are not interested so much in a cure for the nation's ills as they are in a remedy for corns and ingrowing nails.
